ATTEMPT TO POISON A FAMILY. Mrs. Harris's Quick Perception Saves Her Husband and Children. (Correspondence of the Dispatch.) SCOTTSVILLE, VA., September 16.

A serious attempt at poisoning took place here night before last. A young negro man named Ges.ge Carter attempted to poison Mr. Charles B. Harris and all of his family by putting "London and all of his family by putting London blue" in the milk. Mr. Harris has had Carter in his employ some two years, and had placed great confidence in him, entrusting him with aimost everything about the premises. Some week or so ago, on account of some neglect of duty he had to reprimand him right severely, and a few days since Mrs. Harris also gave him a slight reprimand. On Thursday they were both absent, leaving George and their little eight-year-old son there all day. That night George milked as usual, and when supper was ready some of the milk was put on the table for the coffee. Mrs. Harris without noticing put milk in a cup and filled it with coffee for Mr. Harris and was about to fill the others also when she suddenly discovered a peculiar purple in the milk, but Mr. Harris had already taken a sip or two. He hurried to town and got Dr. Jefferles to give him an antidote. To-day the boy was arrested and tried before Esquire J. L. Dawson, and the evidence being very strong of the guilt of Carter, he was sent to jail in default of bail for 500 to appear at the next term of the Criminal Court. blue" in the milk.
